

LAIMONAS RIMKUS

He is the CEO of the Klaipėda sea cargo company BEGA, the President of the Association of Lithuanian Stevedoring Companies. He actively participates in the activities of the Association of Lithuanian Stevedoring Companies (Lietuvos jūrų krovos kompanijų asociacija, LJKKA) in addressing issues related to port competitiveness, improving the accessibility and attractiveness of port services, internal rules and security, technological and infrastructure development, management, and other relevant matters.

He has been elected as a member of the Council of the LJKKA and Vice-President for several terms. In March 2025 he was elected president of the LJKKA and currently holds this public position. He is also currently a member of the Transport Committee of the Lithuanian Confederation of Industrialists (Lietuvos pramoninkų konfederacija, LPK), a signatory of the establishment of the Lithuanian Maritime Cluster, and a member of the board.